A truly holistic approach to human care encompasses all areas of a person's self perception, their place in this world...in order to provide best care—the most therapeutic, healing, and compassionate experience a patient and family can walk away from— shouldn't we be finding out whether our patients are transgender—whether recently changed or remotely? Not because we want to pry, but because an identity change of this magnitude has an enormous impact on the rest of this person's life (and their family—i.e
